

Terra Cotta Warriors: Guardians of China's First Emperor

Saturday, March 27, 2010

Join Krouse Travel as we travel to our Nation's Capital.

The highlight of the day will be our visit to the Terra Cotta Warriors exhibit: Soldiers. Charioteers. Archers. Musicians. Generals. Acrobats. Nearly 2,000 years ago, thousands of life-size clay figures were buried in massive underground pits to accompany China's first emperor, Qin Shihuangdi, into the afterlife. Their discovery outside the city of Xi'an in 1974 is one of the greatest archaeological finds of the 20th century. Now, you can stand face-to-face with these terra cotta warriors. The exhibition, featuring treasures from the tomb complex including 15 life-size figures, weapons, armor, coins, and more. Don't miss this chance to see the largest collection of significant artifacts from China ever to travel to the United States.

We also have requested admission to the White House. We will not know for sure until 1-2 weeks before the tour, but are hopeful that we will be approved.

If confirmed, the White House tour is self-guided with National Security Officers in each room to answer any questions about that room that you may have. If we are not confirmed, we will substitute a tour of Capitol Building.

We will end our day with a 2 hour guided tour of Washington DC including visits to the many monument. No matter what, this itinerary will highlight all of the major sites in our Nation's Capital.
